

BCS Certificate in Commercial Awareness

This Commercial Awareness course explores the key areas of background knowledge needed by business and systems analysts.

Objective

At the end of this Commercial Awareness course, delegates will be able to:

- Understand the techniques used to evaluate a financial case
- Understand costing and pricing
- Understand cash flow forecasting and budgeting
- Describe the contents of financial accounting documents
- Interpret financial accounts
- Explain specified business performance ratios
- Define the elements and usage of Porter's Five Forces Framework and Value Chain
- Define the elements as usage of the Boston Consulting Group's matrix
- Define the performance measures and usage of the Balanced Business Scorecard
- Define the elements of specified cultural analysis approaches
- Explain the different management structures and their characteristics
- Define the different architectures that may be adopted by organisations

Details

Duration: 2 Days

Who is this course for

Those working in a business change role such as business analysts, programme or project managers, solution architects and service managers who wish to gain an understanding of the structure, operation and behaviour of organisations.

Course Content

Financial reporting

- The balance sheet
- The income and expenditure statement (profit and loss account)
- The cash flow statement
- Financial ratio analysis

Budgeting, costing and pricing

- Budgets and departmental businesses
- Cash flow and cash management
- Costing and pricing

Evaluating a financial case

- The purpose of building a financial case
- Techniques for evaluating a financial case:
 - Payback/breakeven
 - Discounted cash flow / net present value (DCF/NPV)
 - Internal rate of return (IRR)

Market analysis and competitive advantage

- Analysing the business domain
- Analysing the product/service portfolio
- Delivering business value

Organisational behaviour and culture

- What is organisational behaviour?
- Organisational effectiveness and the balanced business scorecard
- Understanding and analysing culture

Working in groups

- Groups and group dynamics
- Formal and informal groups

Organisational structure

- Organisation structuring
- Types of jobs
- Line, staff and functional responsibilities
- Formalisation of rules and procedures
- Centralisation versus decentralisation

