

Train the Trainer Training

Our 1-day Train the Trainer course will give you the techniques and confidence to deliver highly effective training courses. Learn how to engage with a group instead of giving a lecture.

Objective

After completing the Train the Trainer training course, you will be able to:

- Promote learner participation and involvement by using effective questioning techniques in a training session
- Evaluate personal training strengths and areas to work on
- Define the factors that promote learning
- Apply the concepts of NLP and Accelerated Learning in training
- Understand the difference between training and presenting information
- Use recognised success measures to assess effective learning
- Define effective feedback

Duration: 1 Day

Who is this course for

Perfect for new trainers or managers looking to provide an in-house training solution.

We ask that delegates prepare a short training session for the first day of the course.

This can be on anything (e.g. 'How to Tie a Shoelace') - it's intended to give delegates something to present and refine during the session.
