Tel +44 20 4571 2395
info@siliconbeachtraining.co.uk

What is ILM Level 2 Award for Young Leaders?

This ILM Level 2 Award for Young Leaders Certification Course is designed for individuals aged between 14-24 that are actively engaged within community-based groups, that are looking to develop a range of leadership, self-management, and mentoring skill attributes. This ILM Training Course can help Young Leaders develop their leadership style to help them extract the maximal productivity from a group which they are leading. Candidates will significantly enhance their CV with this ILM Certification, whilst building core skills relating to mentoring, enhancing motivation, and accountability - all of which are beneficial in the business, in sports teams, and when leading a university team project. The knowledge and techniques learnt during this training course will offer a pathway to future personal development qualifications and essential life-long communication skills.

Taking this ILM Level 2 Award for Young Leaders training course can enhance applications and help when trying to achieve:

- Junior Sports Leader Awards
- Duke of Edinburgh
- Queen's Scout Awards
- University Applications
- Volunteering Requests
- GCSEs, A Levels, and NVQs

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this ILM Level 2 Young Leaders Course, individuals will have the skills to successfully lead teams in a variety of life situations, and will have developed their fundamental communication skills.

- Developing Self-leadership and Resilience
- Developing Young Leadership Skills
- Developing Mentoring Skills
- Developing Awareness of Equality and Diversity

Tel +44 20 4571 2395
info@siliconbeachtraining.co.uk

This ILM Level 2 Award for Young Leaders Certification Course is designed for individuals aged between 14-24 that are actively engaged within community-based groups, that are looking to develop a range of leadership, self-management, and mentoring skill attributes.